Beconfident launches new products for acne-prone skin

We have worked for almost year to create a new packaging solution for our clear skin system products. Thanks to this development, the products will now come in lighter and smaller tube which will make it easier for customers to bring along. This also had a positive effect on the price making it more competitive on the market.

As The launch will take place at the Swedish Pharmacy Exhibition in Stockholm between the 8-9th of September 2017.
